PETITIONING THE COURT

Ms. LaRose was released from federal custody on August 3, 2018. As of this writing, the offender does not have an approved residence as a result of an issue with her boyfriend's landlord. We note that the offender's boyfriend is in the process of moving, and recently advised that this should occur in the coming weeks. Our plan is to place the offender at the Residential Reentry Center (RRC) as soon as possible until suitable living arrangements can be made.

On August 6, 2018, the defendant waived her right to a hearing and agreed to the proposed modification of supervision conditions after discussing the matter with her attorney. It is also noted that Assistant United States Attorney Jennifer A. Williams voiced no objection to the proposed modification.
